Name _____

Read the story. Then, answer the questions.

Talking It Out

Sometimes, our friends can make us angry or hurt our feelings. Instead of fighting with someone who upsets you, try to talk it out. Ask a teacher or another friend to help you talk to each other. Tell them why you are upset. Your friend may be upset about something you said or did too. Listen to their words calmly. After all, you want them to listen to you too! When both of you are done talking, shake hands and forgive each other.

1. What is the main idea of this story?
 - a. Talking out a problem is better than fighting.
 - b. Ask a teacher to help.
 - c. Your friend may be upset too.

2. What should you do if someone upsets you?

3. Who can you ask for help?

4. Why should you listen to your friend's words calmly?

5. What should you do after you are both done talking?

6. What might happen if you get into a fight with someone who made you angry?

Wash Your Hands

You have most likely heard your family and teachers tell you to wash your hands. Be sure to use warm water and soap. Rub your hands together for as long as it takes to sing the A-B-Cs. Then, sing the song again while you rinse them. Soap can help kill the germs, or tiny bugs, that make you sick. If you do not wash your hands, you can pass along an illness to a friend. You could also spread the germs to your eyes or mouth if you touch them before washing your hands. Remember to wash your hands!

- 1. What is the main idea of this story?
 - a. Bugs can make you sick.
 - b. Rub your hands together.
 - c. You should wash your hands with warm water and soap.

2. How long should you rub your hands together?

3. What does soap do?

- 4. What does the word germs mean?
